WRITES INTERESTING LETTER FROM FRANCE

Mill Rembertcourt, France,
November 28, 1918.

Dear Aunt Matt:

Well, it's all over and how very glad we all are, and we have now the complete and absolute victory which was destined to be ours all the time. Nothing less would have sufficed. It is final. I was in the last battle of the war, right out in it, in the very front lines, and in front of the Hindenburg line which we attacked in the afternoon of Nov. 10th, at 4:30 hour (2:30 p. m.) It was awful. I have had my complete fill of war; and have seen mangled, battered and blood-spattered men; arms off, legs mangled and crushed, heads split open—God, the gruesomeness and awfulness of it all is too much for words, and thank God it is all over now.

The second battalion of the my old regiment, attacked the Hindenburg line, and the Chief of Staff let me go up to the front line and get into it. The machine gun bullets whizzed all around us, the shells burst everywhere, and I'll never forget the picture of that advancing line of infantry. The enemy put down an awful barrage, Major Hunt and myself were caught in it, the shells hit all about us, throwing dirt and mud over us, and the ground would fairly shake and tremble with convulsions at each burst. But they did not hit us, though they did hit and mangle and kill many others,—the devils, I don't fear machine guns like I do shells. Nobody who has never seen it, or been in it, can ever understand what it is. And I saw just a little bit of war, and nobody but the poor infantry right in the front line ever knows what war really is. He gets the worst of everything; less to eat, fewer clothes, no fire, cold or wet and takes all danger. Now that it is all over I would not go through it again, except on being ordered to, and as a matter of duty I would ever request to be in an attack again. But too, I am glad of my experience and proud that I was in the climax and in the battle at the front when the armistice was signed. We are all glad it is over, but up here at the front there is little hilarity, everybody is solemn and thoughtful and full of pity for those who could not live to see the glorious day of final victory, but they have not died in vain. In the back areas they are having a great time; the flags are flying; they say the dark nights are all over and past, the towns are all lighted up, but the closer you get to the front the less demonstration Frenchmen everywhere are embracing the Americans and joyfully exclaiming "You did it!" "Hurrah for les Americans". We didn't do it all, but our help was the final finishing blow.

Now that the war is over perhaps I can go back to towns and cities and see something of France and French people. All the villages up this way, and cities, are all shell torn, deserted, and partially destroyed. Some are literally blown to powder and scarcely a vestige of them remain. Occasionally Frenchmen are beginning to come back now, to see what has become of their little home places during these four years of German occupancy. I have been all over the region of St. Mihiel, our division relieving the 90th division, which took part in the drive of Sept. 12th. The 64th has been on four different sectors on the front, and we have marched and counter-marched all over this part of France. I have had a little bit of it all. Of course, I hope we may have no more war, but we never know, and as I like the army even at its worst, I think I shall stay in it. The war pictures are in a way greatly alike, marching columns are the same; reliefs go on and on, situations arise and are met, and arise again, and though seemingly alike, it is all different, and I never tire of watching troops march past on the road or wondering what is coming next. That element of wondering and uncertainty is perhaps one of the greatest reasons of the army's fascination. Just now we are sitting here on the lines, as we held them on the 11th, only about seven miles from the nearest fort of Metz, wondering if we are to go forward and become a part of the Army of Occupation, or go back and wait our turn to go home. Rumor persistently has it that we go to Luxembourg in three or four days. I took a great trip to Germany the other day, that part of German Lozaine that is now French. Rode over to Gorze on a bicycle, with the Chaplain, a very interesting and grand town, beautiful church and very old; a fine old chateau, used as German headquarters. Some experience, this riding, to Germany on a bicycle. I shall never forget arriving at the frontier and seeing the German frontier markers. There on the side of the road was a large iron post about eight feet high, with a disc on top, whereon was stamped the black Prussian eagle, and above the eagle was written "Deutschens-Reich". Went to Metz a day or so ago. Metz, the repositioning of which has been the dream of Frenchman for half a century! In Metz were soldiers of all the allies and on the public square you could hear French, German and English all being spoken at the same time. The Cathedral was wonderful. Grand music greeted our ears, issuing from a concealed pipe organ. I think it was the sweetest music I ever listened to. The Cathedral was erected in 1609. On the outside, just above the entrance, are statues of some of the prophets. Peculiarly enough, and with characteristic Teutonism, tinged with blasphemy, the Kaiser Wilhelm II had set himself up as one of the prophets. There he was, looking up, with his mustash turned up, as one of the prophets. The French had put chains around his neck and hands and from his neck was suspended a placard on which was inscribed "Sic Transit Gloria Mundi". Down on the esplanade the statues of Old Wilhelm I, Friedrich Carl, Wilhelm V and others, all heroic size, had been overthrown. Metz was full of bands, girls in Alsatian and Lorraine costumes, very pretty; French soldiers, Americans and some German civilians, with long and scowling faces.

I just now hear that we leave for Luxembourg via Chambley, from there to Berlin. I suppose it will be many months before we return, the Seventh being a Regular division, perhaps will remain indefinitely. While the war was on I just could not get my mind off of it, and felt like I should study, study all the time to make myself as efficient as possible. Will try and write oftener now, though we will still be very busy. Now I can safely tell: I had Spanish Influenza very badly upon landing at port of debarkation, and was in the hospital ten days. I am very proud indeed of being an American. Give my best love to all, and a Merry, Merry Christmas. Lovingly,

JAKE.

To the Farmers of Rockcastle and Southern Madison Counties

My Dear Farmer Friends:—

The year 1918 has gone now forever but it leaves great pleasure with me because of many wonderful things which have been done by you along agricultural lines.

In completing my annual report, I find that Southern Madison County has a splendid crop of corn and increased her wheat acreage from 1162 acres to 2715 acres. Rockcastle county has a good corn crop and increased the wheat acreage from 875 to 2500. Southern Madison and Rockcastle has from 5000 to 7000 bushels of seed corn ready for next years crop 36 flocks of sheep have been started, 950 ewe lambs were kept in Rockcastle county for breeding purposes. There were hundreds of other things that I would like to speak of which I will bring to your attention later.

I will not be able to make visits in the different sections of the counties this winter on account of teaching in Berea College. I am in charge of a short agricultural course in which we take up soils, farm crops, farm animals and farm management. I wish that many of you could take this short course this winter. I shall be ready to answer any correspondence and be glad to send bulletins and information to any farmer who wishes it. I shall be in my office on Saturday afternoon from 2:45 until 4:00 o'clock. Always glad to have you call and discuss farm problems.

The agricultural outlook for 1919 is very promising. The wheat crop is better than ever has been known at this time. Stock is in better condition. We have more seed corn selected and cared for than we will be able to use in this section and this means that we will have some for sale.

One of the big events of the State of Kentucky for 1919 will be Farmers' Week at the State College of Agriculture, Lexington. Farmers Week begins January 28, and continues to 31st. I hope to see many of you present at

We shall see there on exhibition, the products of Kentucky and hear the best speeches on the subjects of live stock, soils, farm management, etc. I hope that many farmers of Southern Madison and Rockcastle Counties will plan to be at this meeting. Sketches of Farmers' Week will be found in the Citizen and the Signal from time to time.

If you are your sons are interested in taking a course in agriculture this winter come to Berea and we shall be glad to share with you in this course. I wish you a prosperous and most profitable year 1919.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR KENTUCKY FARMERS.

Farmers of Kentucky have learned in taking a course in agriculture this winter come to Berea and we shall be glad to share with you in this course. I wish you a prosperous and most profitable year 1919.

MANURE.

The value of barnyard manure and the best means of taking care of it and applying in are given too little attention by Kentucky farmers and the waste that results, on the average farm, would appal the farmer if he knew how great the waste is.

Dr. Charles E. Thorne, Director of the Ohio Experiment Station, has been invited to come to Kentucky to tell our people the results of his twenty-five years of experimental work with manures and other fertilizers. Dr. Thorne probably knows more about farm manures, their values and other uses, than any other man in the United States. His lectures will be one of the features of the Farmers' Week exercises at the University of Kentucky, January 28th to 31st.

TRACTORS.

The farm tractor is coming to play a more important part in the work of the farm. The high cost of feed and work animals and the large amount of necessary idleness of work animals make the tractor a more economical source of power on many farms. The College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky is giving special attention to farm tractors and has a considerable number of different makes which will be used in demonstrations during Farmers' Week at the College, January 28th to 31st.

It should prove intensely interesting to be able to see the leading makes of tractors all together and doing various classes of work.

BRODHEAD

"Some of the 'small' fellows are not pleased at what this paper (the I. J.) has said about Theodore Roosevelt". The most knowing man in the course of the long life will always have much to learn; and the wisest and best much to improve. The fellow who is always looking for mistakes on the part of others is sure to make glaring ones himself, and he naturally brings more censure upon himself because he is so critical of others. It is easy to criticize the man who carries responsibilities when we have none of our own. Let us put ourselves in the other fellow's place before being so free with our criticisms. Envy is almost the only vice that is practical at all times and in every place, the only passion that can never lie quiet for want of irritation; its effects, therefore, are everywhere discoverable and its attempts always to be dreaded. Mr. Roosevelt might have done some very small and childish things since the war began with Germany, still Germany considers that he was their greatest enemy.

—Jewel, the little daughter of Dr. W. E. McWilliams has entered school here. — W. P. Riggsby, of Lincoln, was here Sunday. — Eld. H. T. Young was down from Mt. Vernon, Tuesday, looking after some business matters. — Prof. E. A. Strange received a message Monday that his sister was in a dying condition at her home in Columbia. He left at once for bedside — R. L. Smith, of Hiatt, was in Stanford, Monday. — Walter Robins returned to Harlan, Sunday, where he is employed by some coal company. — Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Belcher, recently of Flat Lick, Knox county, have moved back here — The Rev. A. J. Pike has flu, and at present there are about twenty five new cases in town. — The Harbourn Tie & Lumber Co., with H. Hamm since Chas. Brown has been ill with flu. — Eld. L. N. Bowling has been called by the Christian church at Goshen, Lincoln county, and will preach there twice each month during 1919. — Ray Crawford, who has been employed as Assistant Agent for the L. & N. here for the past three months, has been called out as extra telegraph operator.

NO GREAT ACT OF HEROISM REQUIRED.

If some act of heroism was necessary to protect a child from croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and give it as soon as the first indication of croup appears, there are many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within the reach of all and is prompt and effectual.

Judge John D. Carroll, of New-castle, has flung his hat into the ring for the democratic nomination for Governor. But the woodpeckers laughed when he declared against John Barberyorn. He frankly admitted that he has not always been thus. But, says he, the war has convinced him that booze is bad. It was an expensive lesson and hard on the people, but we rejoice that he has at last been converted, although it cost the war to do it. However, we are opposed to making any man the leader of a flock or an elder in the church on the day of his conversion. As to this great evil, the Judge and Ed Morrow are of one mind. They are both now prohibitionist-politically. To hear Ed Morrow was an audience and now, yes, even now, claim the horrors of demon rum, you would think he never looked upon the wine when it was red. Little would you dream that the Republican Convention which nominated him in Lexington in his last race, according to Judge O'Rear, Dr. Brunner and others, "was owned and controlled body and soul by the brewers and distillers."

But why elect any candidate who is just politically dry? Is it not safer and wiser to make Governor the man who is known of all men to be dry at heart; dry from years of total abstinence and who has boldly declared his honest conviction against liquor many years before the war was ever thought of or the Lexington Convention was ever held? So here it is to James D. Black, because we know he is sincerely dry. He is not dry for this campaign only, but has ever been and ever will be dry. As Governor he will be the very embodiment of that principle. His daily acts and words will be in keeping therewith. No one need doubt his sincerity, for it is his belief, practice and teaching since boyhood. We have weighed his splendid qualifications; we know his honesty, his uprightness and his high ideas of push and progress. He wants an educated Kentucky, God bless him in that ambition! He openly declares for a sober state and a dry nation.

Now let the advocates of our Jim Black shake the bushes, proclaim his virtues and proceed to nominate him, which will be equivalent to his election in November.

While our Nation was in active warfare, we were declaring that our soldiers were the best soldiers in the world; that they would win the war and be back home right away. We further said that we would back them with our last dollar. They made good. We backed them sufficiently to enable them to save the honor of the Nation.

They are now coming home. As soldiers we praised them and supported them. Now when they have returned to private life, they need an equal showing and a chance to make good in the line of work for which they are best qualified.

Of those who answered the Nation's call from Rockcastle, the majority were farmers. As citizens who aided them during the war, it is now our duty to encourage them and help them to again take their rightful places in private life. There should be started some movement to encourage every boy who left the farm, to return to the agricultural pursuit. With their experiences over seas and in cantonments, they are better qualified to make successful farmers. There should be some steps taken to see that all who so desire may engage in farming for the coming year.

What Teachers Should Know

Frankfort, Ky.

Jan. 15th, 1919

Mrs. Alice Davis,

Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Dear Mrs. Davis:

To teach in the public schools of Kentucky after the closing of this session of school, a teacher must pass an examination in Elementary Agriculture. The examination in agriculture will be given in connection with the regular county examination and will be conducted in the same manner.

Your very truly,

C. J. Jolly,

Asst. State Supt.

The following sections of the 1918 school law should be carefully read by every one expecting to teach in 1919.

No. 24b. (Acts 1918.) Examination.—After July 1, 1919, no person shall be authorized to teach in the Common Schools of this State except in the cities aforesaid, unless he shall have first passed an examination prepared by the State Board of Examiners, on the subject of Elementary Agriculture, and the law in regard to examination of teachers on other subjects in this Common School course, shall apply to the subject of Elementary Agriculture.

No. 24c. (Acts 1918.) Enforcement of Teaching.—After July 1, 1919, the State Board of Education, teachers and all school officers shall enforce the teaching of the subject of Elementary Agriculture in the same manner that the teaching of other branches of the curriculum is, or may be enforced.

No. 24d. (Acts 1918.) Examination.—Any person holding a certificate to teach need not be examined on any other branch than Elementary Agriculture, until the expiration of the certificate held by him.

Courier Journal Makes Plans For Peace Conference

An out of the ordinary example of newspaper enterprise is being shown by the Louisville Courier Journal in the display advertising announcement appearing elsewhere in this issue. The purpose of this advertisement is to acquaint the people of Kentucky and the Louisville territory with the foreign news service of the paper.

With the signing of the armistice in November the Courier Journal began extensive preparations for covering the Peace Conference to follow by sending Arthur B. Krock, Editorial Manager of the paper, to Paris, from which city he is now sending daily cables exclusively to the Courier Journal. Already the Courier Journal had arranged with the New York Times for its complete foreign cable and wireless service by special wire from New York each night, in addition to receiving the full leased wire and cable service day and night, of the Associated Press.

No other daily newspaper in this territory has shown such enterprise and aggressiveness in the effort to give its readers complete, accurate and up-to-the-minute reports of the great history-making Paris Peace Conference, which during the next three months is expected to determine the price Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey must pay for the more than four years of frightfulness and destruction brought on the world.

The Courier Journal, in the advertisement referred to, announces a special three months' trial subscription during the Peace Conference period, giving every opportunity for the people of this territory to become fully informed upon the deliberations of the envoys in Paris, when they begin to fix the terms the Allies shall demand of their conquered foes.

Kidney troubles don't disappear of themselves. They grow slowly but steadily, undermining health with deadly certainty, until you fall a victim to irremediable disease. Stop your troubles while there is time. Don't wait until little pains become big aches. Don't trifle with disease. To avoid future suffering begin treatment with GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules now. Take three or four every day until you are entirely free from pain.

The housewife of Holland would almost as soon be without food as without her "Real Dutch Drops," as she quaintly calls GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules. They restore strength and are responsible in a great measure for the sturdy, robust health of the Hollanders. Do not delay. Go to your druggist and insist on his supplying you with GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules. Take them as directed, and if you are not satisfied with results your druggist will gladly refund your money. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on the box and accept no other. In sealed boxes, three a box.

Why Meat Prices Vary in Different Stores

Prime steers.....	$12.00
Good to choice steers.....	11.00
Common to medium steers.....	10.00
Yearlings, fat to fancy.....	10.00
Fat cows and heifers.....	9.00
Cowling cows and heifers.....	8.00
Bulls, plain to best.....	6.00
Few to heavy calves.....	5.00
Western range steers.....	10.00

These newspaper quotations represent live cattle prices in Chicago on December 30th, 1918.

The list shows price ranges on nine general classified groups with a spread of $13.85 per cwt. —the lowest at $6.50 and the highest at $20.35.

Why this variation in price?

Because the meat from different animals varies greatly in quality and weight.

Although the quotations, shown are in nine divisions, Swift & Company grades cattle into 34 general classes, and each class into a variety of weights and qualities.

As a result of these differences in cattle prices, (due to differences in weights and meat qualities), there is a range of 15 cents in Swift & Company's selling prices of beef carcasses.

These facts explain:

- 1—Why retail prices vary in different stores.
- 2—Why it would be difficult to regulate prices of cattle or beef.
- 3—Why it requires experts to judge cattle and to sell meat, so as to yield the profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound—a profit too small to affect prices.

Rundown and Unable to Work

"I am pleased to recommend Peruna as it was beneficial in restoring my health when I was all run down from overwork and nervous worry and was unable to take up my regular work. A friend recommended Peruna and said he was sure that it would restore my strength. I soon found that it was getting better and in a little over two months I was able to resume my duties with renewed vigor and strength. It certainly is a wonderful medicine to vitalize the system."

We are all well ad present, except my brudder; he was kicked in the suburbs last night by a mule—de mule is not expected to live.

Your rich aunt who died from palpitation of the heart when you was here is still dead and doing nicely. Hope dis will find you the same. After she died dey found fifteen thousand dollars sewed up in an old bussell that she left behind, so you are no longer a poor man, but a dutchman.

Your brudder will went to work diss morning; de job will last about six months, but might get out sooner on good behavior. Business has been dull since you left—especially the saloon business. Your wife was took to de insanity asylum yesterday—she was crazy to see you.

I saw your little boy this morning for the first time. I think he looks just like you but he is alright otherwise, so I would not worry about dat if I was you.

I am sending you by Adams Express your overcoat as day charge so much a pound to send it, I cut off de buttons. Hoping this will prove satisfaction. You will find de buttons in de inside pocket.

I almost forgot to tell you I got married last week. I got a pretty good wife. She is from Milo, but I think I could have got a better one at Westerville, as they have a larger stock to select from.

As dis is all I got to say, I will close my face and expect you to do the same. Hoping dis will reach you before you get it, and that you will answer before dat, I remain your confectionery second to de last cousin.

THE SCAR BEARERS.

Hundreds of American soldiers from Privates all the way up the line to General Pershing will return from France decorated for conspicuous bravery.

Some will wear the Distinguished Service Medal, some the Croix de Guerre. Some will be awarded the Victoria Cross.

Everyone of them will have done some valorous deed of aggression or rescue.

But there will be some 50 odd thousand who came out of the fight more or less disfigured who may wear no ribbons.

These are the scar bearers, the wounded.

Not one of them but faced death in all the many guises that German ingenuity of the most devilish kind could contrive. But theirs was only the ordinary chance of war. Theirs the misfortune of being struck down before they had their chance.

Some will not be permanently disabled. But thousands will be. And everyone that is, everyone that took his chance over there must have his chance once more over here.

Uncle Sam has worked out an elaborate plan of rehabilitation for these wounded heroes. If they need medical attention after their return they will get it. If they need special training to fit them for such work only as their condition will permit them to do they will get that training. What ever assistance is necessary they will have.

And Uncle Sam will bear the expense, gladly, gratefully; for his obligation is one that can never be adequately met.

All of us must remember this in connection with the next liberty loan. Not all of the money will go for material needs, for peace enforcement or for the scores of other demands the governmental plans will precipitate.

Much of it will be devoted to making payment for the services of those who did their best to pay the price of world freedom.

For them too much cannot be done.

Miss Edna Davis is reported very sick this morning.

Mrs. August Kreuger is very sick with pneumonia.

Little Arden Wallen has been very sick during the week.

Lucille Albright was one of the number sick during the week.

Miss Byrd Jones is reported very sick at Langdon School.

A. W. Stewart was over from Madison during the week on business.

Miss Risse Williams expects to go to Florida soon for several weeks stay.

Mrs. Fanny Rowe and niece, Gertrude Baker are with friends in Louisville.

Mrs. W. J. Sparks and daughters expect to go to Louisville soon to spend the rest of the winter.

A postal from J. J. Painter says he is back from Pueblo, Colo., and left his sister, Mrs. Jarrett, very much improved in health.

Koscoe Norton has sent home a German helmet from the French battlefield and it is now on display in Fish's corner window.

Master Robert Sparks who suffered a broken rib while coasting last week, is able to be back in school.

Walter Henderson has bought the dray outfit from John Renner and is now on the job delivering goods.

Mrs. Mesbac Gentry has returned from Ohio, where she has been with relatives since the death of her mother in November.

James Dalton was one of the Cyclone or 38th Division 138th F. A. which returned from overseas about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Frank Moore, wife of the minister, is spending a few days with Mrs. S. C. Franklin, while Dr. Moore is away on business.

Mrs. Nannie Owens, wife of Atty. J. A. Owens, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fred Owens, in Somerset first of the week.

Mrs. W. F. McClellan returned to her home in Chicago Tuesday. She was accompanied as far as Louisville by her mother, Mrs. Francis, who went to the city to have her glasses changed.

F. F. Robbins, of the Copper Creek section, was in town Saturday attending the meeting of the Rockcastle Stock Pens. Frank is quite a stock dealer and is very enthusiastic about the future of that enterprise.

Rev. George Childress was in from Disputanta yesterday and reported a number of cases of smallpox in the Scaffold Cane section and said that the flu was worse along Brush Creek than at any previous time.

Mr. George Jeter, a brother of Mrs. Mollie Durham who was around Brodhead for some length of time about fifteen years ago, but has been in the West since, arrived here last week and will be here the rest of the winter with his sister.

LOCAL

If it's to wear get it at Fish's.
New line of Knicker Collars and Shirts at Fish's.

Nathan Mullins, of the Climax section raised 1 1/2 acres tobacco and sold it in Richmond last week at an average of 50c per pound.

The meeting conducted by Eld. J. W. Riddle, at Cove, closed last Sunday night with four added to the church, two by relation and two by baptism.

NOTICE.

To the taxpayers of the town of Mt. Vernon and the Graded School District. All taxes not paid by Feb. 1, will be levied for.

P. D. DeBord, Marshal.

Man pat 30 with horse and buggy to sell Stock Condition Powder in Rockcastle County. Salary $30 per month Address 424 South Meridian St., Indianapolis, Indiana.

Henry Lee Philbeck, son of Tom Philbeck, and Miss Candice Morris, daughter of Filmore Morris, were married yesterday by Judge Mullins in his office. They are popular young people of the Red Hill section and have a host of friends who extend congratulations.

ENTERTAINMENT AT GRADED SCHOOL CHAPEL.

A program of Readings, Music, and Tableaux will be given under the auspices of the Will-Workers at the Graded School chapel Friday evening, January 24th beginning at 7:30. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

The parents of some of the young bloods 8 to 10 years old, would make no mistake in investigating the conduct of some of those boys. There are things being done, people being annoyed by some of that age, that the parents would not endorse if they only knew it.

Joe M. Norton has a letter from his son Egbert, stating he was enroute from Vancouver, Washington to Camp Taylor to be mustered out and became ill at Cheyenne, Wyoming. The Red Cross took him off the train to a hospital and are taking the best of care of him. He thinks the trouble is the flu.

Reports from Pine Hill indicate that the big works there are not so dead after all. Preparations are being made for a try out on fertilizer and if the experiment proves successful, what was once the Kentucky Portland Cement & Coal Co., will be turned into a fertilizer plant, and the capacity will be sufficient to make it one of the largest in the country.

Hon Nat B. Sewell has been appointed a member of the Workmen's Compensation Board to fill out the unexpired term of Judge S. W. Hager, deceased. Mr. Sewell has made a splendid record as State Inspector and the appointment given here is a recognition of his faithful and efficient service. His new position pays $3500. As Inspector he drew $3000.

Work actually began on the Stock Pens, Monday. S. T. Proctor is in charge and with the splendid corps of helpers, a big showing was made in the four days' work. We are very optimistic as to the future of the Rockcastle Stock Pens and we believe there are many others who feel just as we do. It is a business proposition for the farmer and business man alike, and a little boosting right at this time means much to that enterprise.

The stockholders of the Bank of Mt. Vernon met Wednesday and held their annual election of officers. The following directors were elected. C. C. Williams, W. L. Richards, T. I. Nicoley, J. M. Craig and Geo. S. Griffin. The directors then met and selected the same officers. T. J. Nicoley, Pres., G. S. Griffin, Vice-Pres., W. L. Richards Cashier and Victor C. Tate Assistant. The Bank of Mt. Vernon like many other institutions of its kind and class, had a most prosperous year. They made over $3000. Of this $1200 or 3 per cent was paid out in dividends and the remainder about $1800 was left to undivided profits. Nothing was placed to surplus, as the bank already has $3000 surplus.

SOLDIERS' MEMORIAL FUND.

Sometime since the suggestion was made that a fund be started for the purpose of erecting a suitable monument in honor of those boys from Rockcastle who have given their lives for the freedom of the world. No matter whether the boy died on the battle field or in a cantonment, he is as much a hero and gave just as much for his country. In honor of those boys a suitable tablet should and will be erected in Rockcastle. When the suggestion was made some weeks ago, the first man to respond was big hearted Jim Maret, whose name heads the list of contributors. The campaign is on if you want to have a part in this laudable undertaking send your donation to F. E. Miller, Cashier Peoples Bank, who is treasurer and the following week your name will appear in the Signal. Don't think that $1.00 is all you can give from the fact that the subscriptions shown here are for only $1.00 each. The fact of the matter is nearly every contributor here shown, expects to make his subscription several times that amount before the required amount is raised. Please note the progress each week and if you want to do just a little for those boys who gave their lives for you and me then send your donation at once. The list of contributors to date are:

Jas. Maret $1.00; M. J. Miller 1.00; Floyd Miller 1.00; C. A. Davis; W. G. McBee 1.00; Dr. Lee Chesnut 1.00; E. S. Albright 1.00; Joe B. McKenzie 1.00; S. E. Sheets 1.00; C. C. Davis 1.00; Dr. M. Pennington 1.00; J. M. Craig 1.00; P. L. Durham 1.00.
Total $13.00.

Fish's have just received a big lot of overalls for the boys.

Curt Jett, recently paroled from the penitentiary, was married Tuesday evening at the Lexington court house, by the Justice of the Peace, Chas. M. Parish. Curt Jett gave his age as 43, profession, minister of the gospel. His bride gave her name as Dora Bullock Atkins, 43 years old. She is the widow of James Atkins, who was formerly a fireman at the Phoenix Hotel, and the daughter of A. F. Bullock and Rebecca Bullock, formerly of Wolf county. It is said she knew Jett for many years. Jett will enter Asbury College, Jan. 1, to study for the ministry. — Jessamine Journal.

SORE HEADS.

Mt. Vernon and Rockcastle County like every other town and county have their "sore heads" who are against every thing at home and see no good in anything except it is in some other places. When the first bank was organized there were those who fought it, saying that a bank could not live in Rockcastle. Now we have four good banks. When the Mt. Vernon Power Co., was organized, there were those who said that in less than two years, the concern would be in the hands of a receiver and throw every stumbling block possible in the way of the progress of the company. Now, some of that same bunch, are never losing an opportunity to give the Stock Pens a black eye, yet those people will to their sorrow, find that the stock pens will succeed. People who do these things are "sore heads", selfish, afraid some one else will make a dollar and care nothing about how others fare, so "me and mine" land safely ashore. The fellow who is not willing to help can stay out but he should not try to discourage those who have a broader vision of life.

Mr. W. M. Hayes, of Berea, in remitting for his paper adds the following lines, which we appreciate very much, knowing, the spirit that prompts it add the fact that we appreciate the real friendship of a man like Mr. Hays. He says:

Find enclosed check $2.00 for which please give me credit. I think this puts me up to Oct. 12, 1919. Excuse me for not remitting sooner, I have been somewhat negligent. I like to read your paper in order to hear from my old friends and neighbors. I like you as a man all but your political part, I don't like that a d—n bit and guess you don't like mine any better than I do yours. But that is all right anyway. I am getting too old to quarrel about politics but I can't help but think I am right. I am seventy-three years old the 18th Inst. The frost of 73 winters

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. ## Men!

—you who are returning from the war:

Will you accept the "just-as-good" plea or the "can't-tell-the-difference" argument, after what you've learned from your Uncle Sam?

You've seen "almost" food, guns, coats, leggings turned completely down by a cold Q. M. because they didn't measure up to the REAL.

You wouldn't be satisfied with a gun that wouldn't shoot straight. You wouldn't accept bacon almost fit to eat.

Are you one bit more willing, now, to don civilian clothes again that will wear "almost" as well as Fish's.

We hope to sell you new clothes on the same army basis you have learned to follow, that the best is none too good.

Fish's clothes cost no more than hundreds of garments that you and we and the men who sell them know would be rejected if offered to the Q. M. C. to-morrow.

A Swann Hat, and other good furnishings to match the Hat and Clothes, completes the civilian uniform.

BEREA AFTER-WAR Program

RETURNING SOLDIERS AND OTHERS

The World Conflict of Arms is Over: that of commerce, industry, and social reform is just beginning. The flower of the manhood of America which rallied to the defense of our great nation is now returning home to follow the ordinary pursuits of peace.

BEREA College

With its fixed high principles and ideals, makes this warning call to every ambitious young man and woman in the great mountain region. Berea has been one hundred per cent patriotic through the war—contributing more than one thousand students and twenty faculty members to the service—and now it is ready to enlarge and intensify its courses to meet the immediate needs of peace.

Thorough courses are given in the Foundation, Vocational, Academy, Normal & College Departments. Berea recognizes that there are splendid people in the mountains that cannot get an education in the average high priced school, and to those people a special invitation is given.

There are two important terms before this school year closes. The Winter Term, which begins January 1st, and the Spring Term, which begins March 28th. The cost of the Winter Term, including board, room, and incidental fee is $40. For the Spring Term, $37.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

James Dean and family spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother, near Hopeville. The five months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rowe is very sick. Miss Martha Kirby was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Barron, Monday. Neal McFerron and family spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barron. J. S. Rowe, the hustling merchant, of near this place, is doing a good business. Mrs. W. M. Kirby, of the Long Branch section, visited her brother, S. M. Rowe, Sunday. Mrs. Logan McKinney and Mrs. Andrew McKinney are much better this week. Miss Rissie McKinney was the guest of Miss Luella Kincaid, last Tuesday. W. H. Graves, of Livingston, is here on business this week. Misses Martha and Fannie Kirby were the guests of Mrs. W. M. Bullock, Saturday evening. Mrs. James Bullock, of Level Green, spent last week with Mrs. W. A. McKinney. Misses Martha and Fannie Kirby are knitting for the soldiers. They have knit twelve pair of socks and ten sweaters. Little Miss Ruth Cummins is with her sister, Mrs. Nollie Bullock. Mrs. D. B. Barron remains very sick. Mrs. W. H. Renner and children spent last Friday with Mrs. Nora McKinney.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. This is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. ## CHERRY INDORSED BY HIS HOME PEOPLE

Great Assembly Cheer the Noted Educator and Adopt Stirling Resolutions Endorsing His Candidacy for Governor.

A great mass meeting was held at Bowling Green on Saturday, December 28th, to endorse the candidacy of Dr. H. H. Cherry for the Democratic nomination for Governor. It was an enthusiastic meeting, and one which showed that the people of his native county, among whom he has lived and worked all his life, appreciate his qualities of life and leadership.

him an earnest and effective champion. Every moral issue which has arisen has always found him on the right side. Every progressive measure which has been proposed, whether for governmental efficiency, educational expansion, agricultural betterment, or purity in politics, has always received his unflinching support. He is an earnest and life-long Democrat, who has hitherto been content to be a worker in the ranks. His excellent ability, tried through years of experience, and tested by many difficulties, is of the highest order. Personally honest, politically incorruptible, trained in the difficult work of intelligent and effective leadership, he is eminently qualified to fill the office of Governor, with credit alike to himself and to the Commonwealth. We, his fellow-county men, earnestly endorse his candidacy, and confidently bespeak for him the generous support of every Democrat everywhere throughout the entire State.

Dr. Cherry has issued a progressive program. In his announcement he states that he submits his desires to the people, and under no circumstances will he be a candidate of any political faction. He stands for perfecting the tax and road laws; for organizing the finances of the State upon a sound, equitable and just basis; for economy and efficiency in all departments of State government; for the elimination of every useless job and all forms of waste; for local, State and National prohibition; for the right of suffrage for the women of the State equally with the men; for safeguarding and promoting the rights of the laboring man; for better rural schools; for better health conditions; for a non-partisan judiciary, and, for the non-partisan management of charitable and penal institutions, free from all political influences. He also endorses reforms along other vital lines. He believes that capital should be encouraged to come within our borders; that labor should be secured and receive fair treatment and just compensation; that education should be made compulsory from the State, and agriculture, which is the basis of our wealth, should be fostered and raised to the highest degree of efficiency. He declares that Kentucky needs more fields of alfalfa, more agricultural limestone, and other things, and less political brioche.

If you endorse this character of a man and the principles he advocates, Dr. Cherry would value your support, and if you feel like writing him, he would greatly appreciate hearing from you.

Dr. H. H. CHERRY, Bowling Green, and are back of his candidacy. Mr. Morgan Hughes, a fellow-townsmen of Dr. Cherry, and a noted western Kentucky farmer, reported, as chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, the following resolutions, which were unanimously and enthusiastically adopted:

"The Democrats of Warren county, hailing from every precinct within her borders, in mass meeting assembled do hereby confidently and enthusiastically commend to the Democracy of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the candidacy of H. H. Cherry, who seeks his party's nomination as its candidate for Governor, at the primary election to be held on August 2, 1919. Dr. Cherry was born and reared in Warren county, springing from a Christian family of hardy pioneers. Here he has spent his life. Here he has risen by his unaided efforts, from an humble farmer-lad to become the head of a great educational institution, in which the people everywhere feel a justified pride; and from here his influence for good has radiated throughout the entire State. Every forward-looking movement for the credit of the State and the welfare of the people has always had in
